[No. 50-29/57-NCG.]

G.S.R. 764.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules for the recruitment and training of candidates as Repeater Station Assistants in the Indian Posts & Telegraphs Department, namely:—

PART I—GENERAL

1. Short Title.—These rules may be called the Repeater Station Assistants (Recruitment) Rules, 1959.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires—

(a) 'departmental candidate' includes—

- (i) a Telegraphist,
- (ii) a Telephone Operator,
- (iii) a Mechanic of all grades and branches,
- (iv) a Clerk employed in the Telephone District, the office of the General Manager, Posts and Telegraphs Workshops, and Chief Controller of Telegraph Stores, Technical and Development Circle and the Stores and Workshops units under them, Engineering Divisions, Sub Divisions, Telephone Exchanges, Repeater Stations and Telegraph Offices,
- (v) an Engine Driver and Assistant Engine Driver,
- (vi) a Mains Inspector Grade II and Traffic Inspector attached to Telephone District, and
- (vii) a Cable Jointer and a Draughtsman;

(b) 'Director-General' means the Director-General of Posts and Telegraphs;

(c) 'outside candidate' means a candidate who is not a departmental candidate;

(d) 'Service' means the service of Repeater Station Assistants of the Indian Posts and Telegraphs Department in the unit of recruitment concerned.

3 Scale of Pay Classification.—The prescribed scale of pay of Repeater Station Assistants is Rs 80—5—120—EB—8—200—10/2—220. The post is classified as a General Central Service, Class III (non-gazetted) non-ministerial post.

4. Area of Duty.—Members of the Service shall belong to the cadre of the unit of their recruitment and shall normally be liable for duty only within that unit. In special circumstances, which shall be decided by the Director-General, they may be called upon to proceed on duty to any place in India. They shall also be liable for field service within India in times of war or national emergency.

NOTE.—A list of units of recruitment and the extent of their jurisdiction is given in Annexure 1.

5. Method of recruitment.—Recruitment to the service shall be as follows, namely:—

- (i) 75% by direct recruitment in accordance with the rules in Part II; and
- (ii) 25% by promotion of departmental candidates through a competitive examination held in accordance with the rules in Part III.

Provided that:—

(1) if the number of departmental candidates who qualify in the competitive examination is less than the number of vacancies available for such candidates, the remaining vacancies shall be added to the quota reserved for outside candidates;

(2) any shortage in recruitment against the quota mentioned in clause (i) shall be carried forward to the next selection.

6. Notice calling for applications.—Notice of the date and place of examination for departmental candidates shall be issued through Heads of Circles. A notice calling for applications from outside candidates shall be published in the principal newspapers circulating in the unit of recruitment. Every notice under this rule shall, wherever possible, specify the approximate number of vacancies to be filled.

7. Form and contents of application.—Every outside candidate shall submit his application in the prescribed form before the date fixed by the Director-General and shall indicate the unit in which he wishes to be appointed. He shall also produce evidence to show that he has passed the Matriculation or a higher examination of a recognised Indian University or a Secondary Education Board or an equivalent examination with Hindi, Sanskrit or the regional language of the unit chosen by him as one of the subjects.

A candidate in Government service shall submit his application to the Head of the Circle in which he wishes to be appointed, through the proper channel.

Departmental candidates may compete for the vacancies in the unit in which they are permanently employed. They shall submit the applications in the prescribed form to the Head of the Circle concerned for the competitive examination.

NOTE—A list of Circles is given in Annexure 2.

8. Selection.—Subject to the availability of vacancies in each unit and subject also to the reservation of vacancies under rules 15 and 22, candidates shall be selected strictly in the order of merit as indicated in Annexure 3 for outside candidates and according to the aggregate marks in the examination for departmental candidates.

9. Fees.—Every candidate shall pay fees as specified in Annexure 4. No claim for a refund of any such fees shall be entertained, nor can such fees be held in reserve for any subsequent examination or selection.

PART II—DIRECT RECRUITMENT

10. Conditions of eligibility:

(1) A candidate must be either—

- (a) a citizen of India, or
- (b) a subject of Sikkim, or
- (c) a person of Indian origin who migrated from Pakistan with the intention of permanently settling in India, or
- (d) a subject of Nepal or of Portuguese India or of a former French possession in India.

NOTE 1—The appointment of candidates referred to in categories (c) and (d) will be subject to the issue of certificate of eligibility in their favour by the Government of India. The certificate of eligibility in respect of a candidate belonging to category (c) will be valid only for a period of one year from the date of his appointment beyond which he will be retained in service only if he has become a citizen of India. Certificates of eligibility will not, however, be necessary in the case of candidates belonging to any one of the following categories:—

- (i) Persons who migrated to India from Pakistan before the 19th July, 1948 and have ordinarily been residing in India since then;
- (ii) Persons who migrated to India from Pakistan after the 18th July, 1948 and got themselves registered as citizens within the time allowed.

NOTE 2.—A candidate in whose case a certificate of eligibility is necessary may be admitted to the examination and he may also be provisionally appointed subject to the necessary certificate being eventually issued in his favour by the Government of India.

(2) No male candidate who has more than one wife living shall be eligible for appointment unless the Government of India, after being satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so, exempt him from the operation of this rule.

No female candidate who has married a person having already a wife living shall be eligible for appointment unless the Government of India, after being satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so, exempt her from the operation of this rule

11 Age.—A candidate must have attained the age of 18 years and must not have attained the age of 24 years on the first day of January of the year in which applications for recruitment are called for

NOTE—The upper age limit shall be relaxable in the case of members of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes, displaced persons and other special categories of persons in accordance with the general orders issued from time to time by the Government of India

12 Educational qualifications:

A candidate must—

- (i) have passed the Intermediate or an equivalent examination of an Indian University with Physics and Mathematics as subjects, or
- (ii) have obtained one of the diplomas in Engineering described in Annexure 3 or those awarded by recognised Universities in India, or
- (iii) have successfully completed the first year's course of the three years' degree course (with Physics or Mathematics as one of the main subjects) of any Indian University and produce a certificate from the Principal of the College to the effect that his work and conduct during the year had been satisfactory and upto a reasonable standard, or
- (iv) have passed the pre Engineering Examination of the Delhi University with Physics and Mathematics as subjects

13 Acceptance or rejection of applications

- (1) Heads of Circles shall examine the applications of outside candidates and if they find that any candidate does not fulfil the conditions laid down in rules 10 to 12, they shall reject his application
- (2) Outside candidates who are in Government service shall be selected by the Head of the Circle after a scrutiny of their Confidential records. The Head of the Circles will have full discretion to reject the application of a candidate whose record is unsatisfactory
- (3) The Head of the Circle shall give candidates whose applications are rejected intimation of such rejection

14 Verification of Character and antecedents.—Appointment of selected candidates shall be subject to the condition that the Government are satisfied, after such enquiry as may be considered necessary, that the candidate is suitable in all respects for appointment to the public service.

15 Reserved vacancies.—Appointments to the service will be subject to orders regarding special representations in the services for specific sections of the people issued by the Ministry of Home Affairs from time to time

16 Medical Examination.—Outside candidates selected for training shall be required to undergo a medical examination and shall be declared fit by a competent authority before they are sent for training. Government servants who have already been examined and found fit for employment under Government shall be exempted from the medical examination

17 Agreement and deposit:

- (1) A selected candidate shall be required before the commencement of his training to sign an agreement in the form set out in Annexure 6 to serve Government for a period of five years from the date of his appointment as Repeater Station Assistant and to deposit a sum of rupees fifty as security for the due fulfilment of the terms of the agreement
- (2) The amount of security must be deposited in a Post Office Savings Bank and security deposit account pledged to the Head of the Circle to which the candidate submitted his application for selection in accordance with the Savings Bank rules. The pass book must be submitted to the Divisional Engineer, Telegraphs, Training Centre, Jabalpur, who will forward the documents to the Head of the Circle for safe custody.

- (3) The refund of the security deposit shall be authorised after the candidate has completed five years of service as Repeater Station Assistant.

NOTE:—Permanent officials of the Posts and Telegraphs Department are exempted from the provisions of this rule.

PART III—RECRUITMENT BY PROMOTION ON THE BASIS OF COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION LIMITED TO DEPARTMENTAL CANDIDATES

18. Eligibility.—Departmental candidates who—

- (a) have passed the Matriculation Examination of an Indian University or a recognized equivalent examination;
- (b) have not less than five years of total service in any one or more of the cadres listed in rule 2 on the 1st January of the year in which the examination is held;
- (c) have not completed 35 years of age on the 1st January of the year in which examination is held;
- (d) possess a good record of work, conduct and character; and
- (e) are duly recommended by the Divisional Engineer, or an officer of equal status to whom they are attached.

will be eligible to appear at the departmental examination.

19. Selection of candidates.—Candidates shall be selected by the Heads of Circles from the applicants after a scrutiny of their confidential records. They shall have full discretion to reject the application of a candidate whose record is unsatisfactory. Candidates whose applications are rejected shall be duly informed of the rejection.

20. Place and date of examination.—The examination held under these rules shall be conducted in India by the Director-General, Posts and Telegraphs, in the manner provided in Annexure 7, and at such places as he may fix.

21. Revaluation of answer papers.—No application from any candidate to have his answer papers revalued shall be entertained.

22. Filling of vacancies.—Vacancies available for departmental candidates shall be filled from amongst the successful candidates in the examination strictly according to merit, subject to reservation of vacancies for members of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes in accordance with the orders issued by the Government of India from time to time.

PART IV—TRAINING

23. Training.—All selected candidates will be required to undergo training for a period of six months at the Posts and Telegraphs Training Centre, Jabalpur and practical training in regular maintenance duties at a large Repeater Station for a further period of two months in accordance with the prescribed syllabus. Candidates whose conduct or progress in their studies is not satisfactory, at any stage, shall be liable to reversion to their original posts, if any, or termination of their training, in case of outside candidates, at the discretion of the Divisional Engineer, Telegraphs, Telecommunications Training Centre, Jabalpur.

24. Examination at Training Centre.—The trainees shall be examined in the subjects taught at the training centre during the period of the training course. Candidates who fail to secure the required percentage of marks in one or more subjects may be given an extended course of training, not exceeding three months, at the discretion of the Divisional Engineer, Telegraphs Training Centre.

25. Allowance during training.—During the period of training, direct recruits will receive an allowance of Rs. 60/- per month or such amount as may be fixed from time to time. Departmental candidates as well as other officials of the Posts and Telegraphs Department will be entitled to the pay and allowances that they would have drawn but for their deputation to the training class, or the training allowance whichever is greater.

PART V—APPOINTMENT

26. Appointment.—(1) Every candidate who has successfully completed the course of training, shall be appointed on trial for a period of one year.

(2) If, in the opinion of the appointing authority, the work or conduct of a person appointed on trial is unsatisfactory or shown that he is unlikely to become efficient, the appointing authority may either revert him to his original post, if any, or discharge him forthwith.

(3) On the completion of the period of trial, the appointing authority may confirm the official in his appointment subject to availability of permanent posts or may extend the period of trial by such further period as the appointing authority may think fit.

(4) If no action is taken by the appointing authority under sub-rule (2) or sub-rule (3), the period after the prescribed period of trial shall be treated as an engagement from month to month terminable, on either side, on the expiry of one calendar month's notice in writing.

27. Other conditions of Service.—The conditions of service in respect of matters for which no provision is made in these rules shall be the same as are for the time being applicable to other officers of the Government of India of corresponding category.
